Dear Mr. Wan Muhammad Fadzli,

I would like to invite you and Muslim Society (MCS) organisation to collaborate on a project. We are passionate about this project and believe that your organisation would be a valuable asset to the team.

Our Eid Gala project is one of the most important annual events hosted by MCS at IMU during Hari Raya. Hari Raya, also known as Eid al-Fitr, is an important Islamic celebration that marks the end of the holy month of Ramadan. Muslims across the world commemorate this wonderful festival, which is a time for forgiveness, gratitude, and sharing.

This programme strives to make Hari Raya a memorable and meaningful experience for everyone. We intend to host a colourful and inclusive event that reflects our community's rich culture and traditions. Our gathering will include a variety of activities such as traditional foods and drinks, music and dance performances, games, and crafts.

I believe our combined abilities, expertise, and experience will enable us to plan a great celebration that will be extremely beneficial to the students. I've attached a brief proposal explaining the project's details, such as the itinerary, deliverables, and intended outcomes. I'd love to talk more about this proposal with you and hear your thoughts and suggestions. If you are interested in pursuing this collaboration, please let me know.

We hope to get your positive answer regarding this collaboration. If you need any additional information, you can always contact me through my number (014-7356233) or my official email-id (00000038646@student.imu.edu.my).

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,
